

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air a subjective and partisan anti-Kerry documentary as a "legitimate news item". I would also object to them airing Fahrenheit 911 as well because it is not a legitimate news item, it's a point of view documentary.

How can this company pretend political neutrality when it forced its affiliates not to run the Nightline tribute to our fallen American soldiers but will pawn off a biased political documentary as a news item?

This is a gross use of our free public airwaves and is a symptom of rampant media consolidation.

Thank you.
